

THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL

The first day of school is coming soon. Chloe is starting second grade.

She is very excited.

She is also just a bit afraid.

“I hope the other boys and girls like me.

Can I wear my favorite red scarf on the first day?”

he day before school starts, Chloe takes a bath.

She doesn't really like taking baths but she wants to be sure she's all clean and pretty for her first day of school.

Then she goes to bed early.

She gives her teddy bear a big kiss. As she falls asleep, she dreams about school.

T he next day, Chloe is up early. She gets on the big yellow school bus wearing her red scarf.

“Wow, this bus is big,” thinks Chloe.

“These steps are very steep. But I can do it!”

W hen she gets to school, all the boys and girls are waiting in line to go into the classroom. Chloe sees that she is the only student with a tail.

“I hope the other boys and girls like me.”

hen she gets to the classroom door, Chloe shakes hands with the teacher, Mrs. Simmons.

“Welcome to second grade, Chloe. I know you will like it here,” says Mrs. Simmons. Chloe likes her already.
