

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, CHLOE!

Chloe wakes up on her birthday and puts on the special outfit she picked out the night before. She plans to wear her pearl necklace but Mama Donna gives her a brand new purple collar as a birthday gift. Chloe wants to wear the collar because it came with love from Mama Donna. Things with love are always better than other things.

When they get to school, Mama Donna knocks three times on the classroom door. She has never knocked on the door before. Chloe wonders what is going on.

The door opens but the lights are out and Chloe can't see anything.

Then the lights come on and there are all the children.

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY, CHLOE!"

W

ow... all her friends made a wonderful party just for her.

But the fun is just beginning for Chloe, the birthday girl. Sapphire gives her a fun new toy.

“Here, Chloe... this is a present for you because we love you.”

It’s a brightly colored HIPPOPOTAMUS. Wow, that’s a long word. Chloe is very happy.

But wait... there's more! Sapphire has special purple crowns for both of them. She puts it on right on top of Chloe's tiara. Girls can never have too many nice hats.

“Thank you, Sapphire. I love you.”

Game time! Game time! This game is 'Fish Fish, Who's Got the Fish'. Smelly fish is one of Chloe's favorite treats.

Mama Donna hides a piece of smelly fish in one of the children's hands while Chloe is not looking.

Nobody says 'yuck'. They learned that it is not a nice thing to say.

Can Chloe find it?

Is it here?

Or here?

Here it is! Ben has it! Chloe finds it quickly because she has a very good sense of smell.

Chloe remembers that Teddy told her not everybody can do everything well.

So even though Chloe can't read as well as Ben, she has a much stronger sense of smell.

And look! That helped her win this game.

Teddy was right!

Mike sees a chocolate cookie on the floor.

Uh, Oh!

They are delicious and in the shape of a bone but they are for children, not for dogs.

Mike knows that chocolate is very bad for dogs.

He knows that if dogs eats enough chocolate they can get very sick and even die.
