

One day, in the lovely state of Montana, a little black Standard Poodle is born.

He loves snuggling with all his brothers and sisters.

He is a very handsome boy and his mother names him Eddie.

W hen Eddie is old enough to travel he goes to live with a very nice lady in Washington State. He gets to run and play. He is a very happy Poodle.

One day Eddie visits a school. He has never been in a school before. He is very excited.

He goes to a Kindergarten class and sits right down on the rug with the children.

Look how tall Eddie is!

he children talk about words that have the letter “E” in them.

Eddie gets his name on the chart. He studies the chart. Maybe Eddie will learn to read.
